3. U2 SIGNED BOXED SET AND BONO ART PRINT

This lot includes items from legendary Irish rock band U2. First is a “Songs of Experience” extra deluxe boxed set, numbered 13839, that contains their 2017 album “Songs of Experience” pressed on two translucent cyan blue 180-gram vinyl records and a deluxe CD digipak with extra tracks, an exclusive two-sided poster showing the album art and the band, a 16-page newspaper with song lyrics, and instructions for downloading a free digital version of the album. The box features the signatures of the band members, and a signed copy of the uniquely designed iNNOCENCE + eXPERIENCE tour book is also included. Finally, there is an artist’s proof of the print titled “The Wolf Came Out at Night” from the Carter Center’s Views of Human Rights portfolio. Lead singer Bono, a prominent human rights activist, created the image with his daughters, Jordan and Eve.

Donor(s): U2
Value: $8,500.00 Winning bid: $7,000.00

4. THE COOK'S WAREHOUSE GIFT SET

The Cook's Warehouse does it again. This package begins with a $150 cooking class card and an assortment of culinary-inspired merchandise. Items include a set of Danica Studio geo coasters, a Wusthof cut-resistant glove and Pro 2½-inch peeling knife, a Chef'n Zipstrip herb stripper, a Joseph Joseph magnetic bottle opener, a Peugeot salt and pepper mill set, and more. The collection is presented in a cream-colored Mason Cash Innovative Kitchen mixing bowl that is made of chip-resistant earthenware and designed to tilt to make mixing on countertops easier.

While these items give you every excuse to cook, a white apron that bears the Carter Center's logo and has been signed by President Carter will help you look good doing it.

Donor(s): Ms. Mary S. Moore, founder and CEO of The Cook's Warehouse, and The Carter Center
Value: $500.00

Winning bid: $2,200.00

6. ORIGINAL OIL PAINTING BY HERBERT ABRAMS

This original 8-inch by 10-inch oil painting on Masonite of Albert Einstein is by the late American artist Herbert Abrams. Abrams was one of the foremost portraitists of his time and painted the official White House portrait of Jimmy Carter. Over the course of his life he created more than 400 portraits, many of which now hang in some of the most prestigious institutions in the country. The piece offered here is unsigned and was never intended to be sold, but Mrs. Abrams decided to part with it to raise money for the Carter Center's programs worldwide.

Donor(s): Ms. Lois Abrams
Value: $850.00

Winning bid: $10,000.00

5. OLYMPIC COIN SETS

Recapture the excitement of the Olympics with this assortment of gold and silver coins commemorating the 1984, 1988, 1992, and 1996 games. Created by the U.S. Mint, the collection includes three coins from the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles; a silver dollar and gold five-dollar coins from the 1988 Olympics in Seoul, South Korea; and a gold five-dollar, silver one-dollar, and gold half-dollar coin from the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona, Spain. Complete your collection with a 16-coin set from the Centennial Olympic Games in Atlanta, Georgia, that comes in a wooden display box with the seal of the U.S. Mint. All coins except the 1984 set come with certificates of authenticity.

Donor(s): Ms. Donna Moser Peak
Value: $2,500.00 Winning bid: $5,000.00

7. "SEEING A VIBRANT FUTURE" PRINT

"Seeing a Vibrant Future" was commissioned in 2018 to celebrate the impact of the Carter Center's 20-year-old Trachoma Control Program. Since 1998, the program has been working with ministries of health in Africa to eliminate trachoma, the world's leading cause of preventable blindness. The original oil painting from which this print was made was presented to President and Mrs. Carter and is on display at The Carter Center. This exclusive piece is signed by President Carter, numbered 1 of 1, and mounted in an 18-inch by 20-inch frame.

Donor(s): The Carter Center
Value: $1,500.00 Winning bid: $6,000.00

8. 1980 CARTER-MONDALE CAMPAIGN MEMORABILIA

It has been said that Jimmy Carter chose to use green and white on his presidential campaign materials to honor his heritage as a peanut farmer. While we cannot say for certain what the motivation was, this collection of memorabilia speaks to the popularity of the choice. You can adorn yourself and your dining room with these Carter-Mondale green-and-white items. Included are a vest decorated with an assortment of campaign buttons, a matching full-length skirt, a 26-inch square silk scarf, a 120-inch square tablecloth, and a 37½-inch-long apron. All are made of Carter-Mondale green-and-white motif fabric and are in excellent condition.

Donor(s): The Carter Center, Frank Moore, Mr. Jay Beck, Ms. Susan Ginsburg, and Ms. Audrey Wiesen

9. FISHING WITH FABIO

If you were a guest at the 2018 Carter Center Weekend, you probably wish you could return to enjoy more of Skamania Lodge and the beautiful Columbia River Gorge. Here's your chance to do that and to spend quality time with surprise auction participant Fabio. You and up to three guests will have two rooms for two nights at Skamania Lodge. During your stay, Fabio will welcome you for a tour and fishing at his private 400+ acre ranch. Afterward, head back to Skamania Lodge, where he will join your group for dinner. Round-trip ground transportation from Portland International Airport to Skamania Lodge will be provided by Executive Transporter LLC, and a Delta Air Lines gift card valued at $2,000 to be used toward airfare purchased either at delta.com, at the airport, via telephone through reservations, or with Delta Vacations is also included.

Note: Visit with Fabio and hotel stay must be booked separately. Both are subject to availability. It is recommended that you call at least six weeks in advance of desired dates. Follow instructions on certificates for booking.

Donor(s): Fabio, Delta Air Lines, Inc., Skamania Lodge, David Blanchard of Executive Transporter LLC

Value: $2,000.00    Winning bid: $16,000.00

10. THREE-SLAT LADDER-BACK DINING SIDE CHAIR

Made from cherry wood that Russ Filbeck harvested in Pennsylvania, this Appalachian ladder-back dining side chair is protected with several coats of hand-rubbed oil and a hard paste wax finish. The woven hickory bark for the gorgeous, comfortable, and durable seat was harvested in eastern Tennessee. Filbeck made eight of these chairs for the dining set sold at the 2016 Carter Center auction.

Donor(s): Mr. Russ Filbeck

Value: $2,000.00    Winning bid: $4,500.00

11. NEPAL ELECTION MEMORABILIA

An observer vest worn by President Carter during the Nepal elections in 2013 is offered in this lot. The front of the blue fishing-style vest displays the Carter Center logo along with the word "Observer." Both also appear on the back along with the phrase "Nepal CA elections November 2013." With the vest is a lanyard holding President Carter's identification card that lists "Delegation Leader" as his title and an 8-inch by 10-inch color photograph that shows him smiling with a young Nepalese child. Carter has signed the matte of the framed image.

Donor(s): The Carter Center

Value: $1,000.00    Winning bid: $10,000.00

12. DONALD STEIN CHINA PHOTOGRAPHS

Donald Stein, a leading Emory neuroscience researcher and longtime supporter of The Carter Center, is also an extraordinary photographer, and these are certified giclée prints of his original works. The prints are on fine art paper and use archival pigmented inks to guarantee color quality, accuracy, and detail that capture the original digital image. Each comes with a certificate of authenticity and is labeled 1 of 3. The winning bidder will decide whether to purchase one or both of these limited-edition photographs.

The first photograph is titled "Members of The Cabinet" and features four Asiatic black bears, recognizable because of the v-shaped white patch on their chests. The photograph was taken near Beijing at a zoo close to the Great Wall of China. Captured at just the right moment, each bear has its own distinct pose as it looks out at the crowd.

The second photograph is titled "The Caravan: Somewhere in the Taklamakan Desert, China." It shows a view, from a distance, of a caravan of camels and riders in a vast desert heading toward the lone building on a sand dune.

Donor(s): Dr. Donald G. Stein

Value: $1,000.00

Winning bid, "Members of the Cabinet": $7,500.00

Winning bid, "The Caravan": $4,500.00

13. HANDCRAFTED EARRINGS AND NECKLACE SET

For the past three years, the Atlanta Contemporary Jewelry Show has been held at The Carter Center, and artists Carol and Jean-Pierre Hsu have displayed their creations there. This husband-and-wife team is from Berkeley Springs, West Virginia, and the two work together to create aerodynamic mobiles and eclectic, colorful jewelry. The Param (which means wind in Korean) necklace in gold, chablis, and orange is 14 inches long and closes with a clasp behind the pendant, which hangs from four 1 $\frac{1}{8}$ -inch-diameter black rubber cords. The matching Kopec (which means hill in Czech) earrings are for pierced ears and are 1 $\frac{1}{8}$  inches long including sterling earwire. The set is made of anodized aluminum and accented with sterling silver.

Donor(s): Ms. Carol Hsu and Mr. Jean-Pierre Hsu
Value: $350.00      Winning bid: $900.00

14. CARTER, DENG, AND XI COLLECTIBLES

Here we have a collection of items that celebrate the relationship between President Carter and leaders of China. First is a beautiful photograph taken by Michael Evans that shows President Carter and Deng Xiaoping waving as they walk down a row of uniformed American servicemen. It is signed by President Carter. Next is a set of three commemorative plates featuring images of Jimmy Carter. One shows him alone, the second shows him with Deng, and the third shows Carter and Xi Jinping. The keepsakes were created as gifts and given to The Carter Center at the annual forum on Chinese-U.S. relations held at The Carter Center.

Donor(s): Ms. Story Evans and Mr. Chengsong Yu
Value: $2,500.00      Winning bid: $27,500.00

15. GUITAR AUTOGRAPHED BY PRESIDENT CARTER

Since its debut in 1954, the Fender Stratocaster electric guitar has been the choice of music greats like Buddy Holly, Jimi Hendrix, and George Harrison. Here is a beautiful black-and-white model that has been signed by President Carter. It has Fender super bullet strings to impart greater tuning ability and comes in a locking, deluxe molded Stratocaster case that has a form-fitting insert to protect the instrument. The owner's manual and other accessories can be found inside.

Donor(s): Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Moores
Value: $3,000.00      Winning bid: $30,000.00

16. HIS AND HERS LIBERIAN ROBES

President Jimmy Carter went to Liberia in 1978 for the first official state visit by a United States president. This pair of traditional Liberian robes was given to President and Mrs. Carter on a subsequent trip in 1985. To make the garments, white and black-dyed yarns were woven together to create wide strips of cloth which have been sewn together to cover the body and arms. Each robe is accompanied by a traditional kufi-style cap that is 8 inches high. The robes measure 48 inches by 70 inches and 51 inches by 69 inches.

Donor(s): The Carter Center

Value: $750.00    Winning bid: $2,000.00

17. DENISE COOPER PAINTING

Emerging artist Denise Cooper was inspired by Mrs. Carter's care and concern for the habitat and preservation of the monarch butterfly to create this 16-inch by 20-inch oil on canvas painting. It depicts three of the beautiful creatures feeding on colorful flowers. The painting recently won first place in a local Arizona art contest. Cooper particularly enjoys painting animals and landscape scenes.

The framed piece measures 25½ inches by 21½ inches.

Donor(s): Mr. and Mrs. Ross Cooper

Value: $500.00

Winning bid:
$15,000.00

18. "BEHOLD" SCULPTURE REPLICA

In 1978, artist Patrick Morelli was inspired to create "Behold." The sculpture is based on a ritual seen in the critically acclaimed television miniseries "Roots," where a newborn is held up to the heavens and told, "Behold the only thing greater than yourself." In 1980, when President Carter signed the bill that created the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. National Historic Site in Atlanta, Coretta Scott King designated a space on the grounds for a larger version of the statue that she had received from Morelli. The 10-foot-tall "Behold" monument, on which this 15-inch by 4-inch by 3-inch version is based, was unveiled on January 11, 1990. Included with the statue is a framed small collage showing photographs of the sculpture and of President Carter and Mrs. King on the day the bill was signed. The mat of the photograph is signed by President Carter.

Donor(s): Mr. Patrick Morelli

Value: $7,500.00    Winning bid: $11,000.00

19. STEFAN FINDEL PHOTOGRAPH

“Trees, Mills Mansion, Staatsburg, NY” is one of the pieces in Stefan Findel’s Hudson Valley, New York, portfolio. The image shows a road leading through trees to an entrance with stone pillars on either side. The only artist to do so, Findel used carbon printing to transfer the photograph to glass and then applied 24-karat gold leaf to the back. A gold matte complements the image, which is in a 9-inch by 11-inch frame. To see more of the portfolio, visit www.stefanfindel.com.

Donor(s): Mr. Stefan Findel

Value: $5,000.00    Winning bid: $1,000.00

20. PRIVATE CONCERT BY PETER YARROW

Performer, songwriter, and American folk music icon Peter Yarrow will come to your home or office for a personal and private concert. Yarrow found fame with the 1960s folk music trio Peter, Paul, and Mary. Yarrow will perform for at least one hour and be available for photographs. He will also sing with your children and present them with personalized copies of his bestselling book, “Puff, the Magic Dragon.” Yarrow co-wrote the song of the same name, which was one of the group’s most famous hits. This private concert could be an ideal fundraiser for your local charity. A Delta Air Lines gift card valued at $1,000 to be used toward airfare purchased either at delta.com, at the airport, via telephone through reservations, or with Delta Vacations, is included for Yarrow’s travel to your event.

Note: The winning bidder will need to provide lodging for Mr. Yarrow and cover additional costs associated with the performance (microphone, speakers, etc., if needed). Please follow directions on the certificate to arrange concert. It is recommended that you call well in advance of your desired date and have alternate dates in mind before calling to schedule. Please keep in mind that the concert is subject to Mr. Yarrow’s availability.

Donor(s): Mr. Peter Yarrow and Delta Air Lines, Inc.

Value: $5,000.00    Winning bid: $20,000.00

21. HAND-TURNED MOULTHROP WOODEN BOWL

Matt Moulthrop is a third-generation wood turner who uses a lathe and hand-forged tools to turn logs into sculpture. According to his website, his creations can be seen in the Smithsonian Institution, the Renwick Gallery of the National Museum of American Art, and The Carter Center. The wood for this bowl came from a pecan tree that fell when Hurricane Michael swept across the southeast and hit the Carters' farm in Plains, Georgia. After being turned into the initial shape, the wood was treated for several months to prevent cracking. The bottom of the bowl is signed by both President Carter and Matt Moulthrop. A copy of "Moulthrop: A Legacy In Wood" signed by both Matt and Philip Moulthrop is also included. For more information about the Moulthrop family and their creations, visit www.moulthropstudios.com.

Donor(s): Mr. Matt Moulthrop

Value: $2,000.00    Winning bid: $7,500.00

22. IRON HORSE VINEYARDS WINE DELIVERY

Iron Horse Vineyards, in the Green Valley region of Sonoma County, California, is a 300-acre family-owned estate winery that resides in a cluster of rustic redwood barn-style buildings overlooking rolling hills of grapevines. Your case of 12 bottles is composed of six Thomas Road Pinot Noir, three UnOaked Chardonnay, and three Classic Vintage Brut. ## 23. CARVED DRAGON VASE

An elaborate carving of a dragon wraps around the body of a vase produced by the Longshan culture of China, which dates to about 3000 to 1900 B.C. The dark color is typical of creations from the era, which is sometimes called the Black Pottery culture. While the dragon adds texture to the larger part of the vase, the surfaces of the base, shoulders, and neck are smooth. The vase stands 15 inches tall and 6 inches wide and comes with a decorative keepsake box.

Donor(s): Mr. Li Xiaohua

25. HAND-COLORED FINE ART PRINTS

Select your favorite of these two groups of original creations from Elizabeth Ginsberg. Each set includes a fine art digital print with hand coloring and a matching unique necklace created from a variety of exotic glass beads. The two prints are signed by the artist, numbered, and presented in simple 11-inch by 15-inch wood frames. A copy of “Pattern & Place: Works on Paper” by Ginsberg is included in each set.

1. Venezia 54 is based on images of the many types of boats and their details seen by the artist in Venice, Italy. In March 2018, Ginsberg spent time in the city as part of a residency grant. Her solo exhibition was presented at the Archivio Emily Harvey near the Rialto Bridge.
2. Noyers 5 was inspired by a medieval French town in Burgundy. The artist has based several recent prints on the area. The textures and light were particularly interesting to her.

For more information about the artist and her work, visit www.elizabethginsberg.com.

Donor(s): Ms. Elizabeth Ginsberg

Value: $600.00 Winning bid: $5,500.00

26. NIXON RESIGNATION LETTER COLLAGE

On August 9, 1974, President Richard M. Nixon resigned. To date, he is the only U.S. president who has done so. A copy of the letter he submitted to Secretary of State Henry Kissinger is framed along with his photograph and a small plaque that reads “The 37th Pres of the U. S. Richard M. Nixon/“The Resignation.”” Another unique piece of American history rescued from the California wildfires of 2018, the framed collage measures 24 inches by 20 inches.

Donor(s): Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ostrander

Value: $4,900.00 Winning bid: $4,000.00

27. TIMES BOOKS AMERICAN PRESIDENTS COLLECTION

Times Books is the publisher of the landmark series The American Presidents. The aim of the series is to present the grand panorama of U.S. chief executives in volumes compact and lucid enough for the busy reader. While only 19 of the 42 books that have been printed so far are offered here, this may well be the largest collection where each book is signed by its author. The list of authors includes Julian E. Zelizer, who wrote the volume on Jimmy Carter, and Sean Wilentz, who wrote the one on Andrew Jackson and currently serves as editor for the series.

Donor(s): A Friend of The Carter Center

Value: $500.00 Winning bid: $2,500.00

28. HERMÈS OSTRICH LEATHER BIRKIN BAG

The history of the Birkin bag, from its creation in 1984, is chronicled on the website of world-renowned fashion and luxury goods maker Hermès Paris. Named for English actress Jane Birkin, the tote was created by Jean-Luis Dumas, a former chairman of the company. This exquisite brown bag features gold-plated hardware, has the traditional Hermès style lock and key, and is made from genuine ostrich leather. It measures 15 inches long, 12 inches tall, and 8 inches wide and comes with the receipt of purchase, giving its price as $25,000.

Donor(s): Dr. Lauren Speeth
Value: $7,500.00
Winning bid: $55,000.00

29. TEMPLETON PORTRAIT OF CARTER

Robert Clark Templeton was an American artist who completed many famous paintings, including the portrait of President Carter that hangs in the National Portrait Gallery. This work from Templeton shows a side view of Carter's head and shoulders against a background of lush green foliage. The framed painting measures 27 inches by 21 inches. A handwritten note from Templeton describing some of the activities on the day of the sitting is attached to the back of the portrait.

Value: $2,000.00     Winning bid: $6,000.00

30. GUITAR AUTOGRAPHED BY JON BON JOVI AND BAND

This impressive black 12-string Takamine guitar is the same brand as the instrument that Jon Bon Jovi took on the band's This House Is Not for Sale tour in 2017—and on every previous tour for 23 years. Bon Jovi's loyalty isn't surprising, since this Japanese brand is among the world's premier acoustic guitar makers. This one has a built-in tuner; mahogany back, sides, and neck; and a solid spruce top. It has been signed by Jon Bon Jovi and his six bandmates.

Donor(s): Mr. Peter Conlon
Value: $12,500.00     Winning bid: $25,000.00

31. "A WALK THROUGH THE SUGARCANE" PAINTING

Sherri Richards created this beautiful mixed-media work on a 30-inch by 40-inch gallery-wrapped canvas using oil and acrylic paints. The painting was inspired by a photograph taken in Uganda by Sherri's husband, Dr. Frank Richards, director of the Carter Center's River Blindness Elimination Program. It shows a small boy, as seen from the rear, as he walks through a field of green and gold sugarcane accented with light pink and yellow. Two monarch butterflies are also a part of the scene, one on each side of the child. For more information about the artist, visit www.sherrisart.net.

Donor(s): Ms. Sherri Richards

Value: $2,500.00      Winning bid: $10,000.00

32. STERLING SILVER AND PERIDOT PENDANT NECKLACE

Created especially for the Carter Center Weekend auction, Debra Lynn Gold's sterling silver and peridot pendant necklace is entirely hand-forged and fabricated in her one-person studio. The 30-inch sterling silver snake chain is decorated with a 1½ -inch by ¾-inch by ¼-inch nonremovable slide-on pendant, created with a U-shaped base that holds the gemstone and its serpent-like setting. This exceedingly wearable piece promises to complement its new owner. For more information about the artist, please visit www.DebraLynnGold.com.

Donor(s): Ms. Debra Lynn Gold

Value: $400.00      Winning bid: $2,000.00

33. MARTHA'S VINEYARD VACATION

Set off the beaten path, this quiet and serene setting allows you to take a break from the world. The house is located midway between the towns of Edgartown and Oak Bluffs, Mass., and from the decks you see only trees, Sengekontacket Pond, and Nantucket Sound in the distance.

The four-bedroom, three-bathroom house has three levels and sleeps 10. It also has three outdoor decks, a hot tub, an outdoor shower, and other items (sheets, towels, cookware, beach chairs, Wi-Fi, a food processor, and a blender) to make your stay comfortable. Bike paths are easily accessible, or you can walk four minutes to a dock for kayakers and the association tennis courts. The open kitchen, dining room, living room, and reading nook are located on the main floor. A fully screened-in gazebo offers a comfortable setting for outdoor dining and entertainment. The home is available for a one-week stay (seven days) October 18–November 1, 2019; May 4–21, 2020; June 1–8, 2020; or any week of October 2020 by agreement between the winner and the owner. You will also receive a Delta Air Lines gift card valued at $1,000 to be used toward airfare purchased either at delta.com, at the airport, via telephone through reservations, or with Delta Vacations. Also included with this package is a canvas tote bag with leather handles bearing the Carter Center logo. Ground transportation is not provided. Follow instructions on certificate to schedule vacation.

Value: $4,995.00      Winning bid: $9,000.00

34. PRESIDENTIAL FRIENDSHIPS

Despite political differences, former Presidents Jimmy Carter and Gerald Ford enjoyed a true friendship. This frame holds a rare photograph, taken on the day of Carter's inauguration, showing Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter, Gerald and Betty Ford, Walter and Joan Mondale, and Nelson and Happy Rockefeller. The signatures of everyone shown, except the Rockefellers, appear at the bottom of the picture. Below the photograph is the signed first page of the eulogy President Carter gave at President Ford's funeral. A printed copy of the rest of the eulogy is attached to the back of the frame.

39. MIKE SNEGG WOODEN BOWL

The first of three incredible bowls made by auction favorite Mike Snegg measures 14 inches across and five inches deep and features stunning marbling with a smooth-as-glass finish. A perfect centerpiece for a dining or coffee table, it was hand-turned and crafted from the trunk of a Norfolk Island Pine tree from Kauai, Hawaii. Fourteen prominent knots appear on the sides, adding texture and character to the vessel.

Donor(s): Mr. and Mrs. Michel D. Snegg
Value: $1,500.00     Winning bid: $3,500.00

40. JEFF CARTER'S ASTROPHOTOGRAPHS

Astrophotographer Jeff Carter, President Carter's son, is offering two images from his collection of gorgeous nebulas, incredible galaxies, and beautiful stars unable to be seen by the naked eye. "Andromeda Galaxy" was taken on October 30, 2018, and features pale yellows and greens along with numerous white stars against a black sky. "North America and Pelican Nebulae" fills the canvas with an assortment of rich, brilliant colors, and was taken on October 12, 2018. The highest bidder will have the option to purchase one of the two 18-inch by 24-inch images or both for twice the winning bid amount.

Donor(s): Mr. Jeff Carter     Value: $500.00
Winning bid, "Andromeda": $14,000.00
Winning bid, "North America": $17,000.00

41. BASS FORCE ONE

Bass Force One is a one-of-a-kind fishing boat designed and donated to the Carter Center auction by Johnny Morris, a fellow angler and longtime friend of the Carters. Its sister vessel resides at the Carters' residence in Plains for their fishing enjoyment.

The boat comes with the following features: Lowrance HOOK-3x color Fishfinder with transducer, Minn Kota Edge 12V foot-controlled trolling motor, all-aluminum body for lightweight performance, carpeted floors, and comfortable seating for two. Also included with the boat is a gorgeous watercolor of a largemouth bass that is float mounted on a rustic piece of wood. The art, measuring 12 inches by 24 inches, also features a bright green six-barbed walker lure.

Donor(s): Mr. Johnny Morris and Ms. Carol Blum McMurray
Value: $5,000.00     Winning bid: $160,000.00

42. NEWSWEEK 50th ANNIVERSARY MEMORABILIA

On February 7, 1983, President and Mrs. Carter attended an extravaganza to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Newsweek magazine. Katharine Graham, chairman of The Washington Post Company, owner of the magazine, greeted the Carters at Avery Fisher Hall and presented them with this special leather portfolio that has “President and Mrs. James Earl Carter” stamped on the front. Inside is a softcover book titled “A Draft of History,” which tells the story of the first 50 years of Newsweek. With the portfolio and book you will also receive a copy of Graham’s Pulitzer Prize-winning autobiography, “Personal History,” and the note she wrote to Mrs. Carter to thank the former president and first lady for attending.

Donor(s): The Carter Center and Mr. Jim Hier

Value: $600.00 Winning bid: $2,000.00

43. CAMP DAVID COLLECTION

Camp David, a retreat for U.S. presidents, began as a camp for federal employees and their families. A collection of six highball glasses emblazoned with the Camp David seal, showing the sign and flora at the main entrance of the property, is offered here along with a deck of Camp David playing cards from the John F. Kennedy era. The cards are in a red box and feature a serene black-and-white winter scene of Aspen Lodge, the president’s cabin. Completing the package is a framed photograph that shows the iconic handshake of President Jimmy Carter, Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin, and Egyptian President Anwar Sadat. Signatures from each of them appear on documents framed with the image.

Donor(s): Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. David Baker, and Ms. Mary Beazley

44. HARMONICA AUTOGRAPHED BY MICKEY RAPHAEL

Mickey Raphael is an American harmonica player who has shared the stage with such legends as Townes Van Zandt, Chris Stapleton, Willie Nelson, and even President Carter! Offered here is a Hohner Special 20, a harmonica whose distinctive sound is perfect for everything from folk and country to rock and pop. Both the instrument and its case have been signed by Raphael. An 8-inch by 10-inch photograph showing President Carter with Nelson and Raphael accompanies the harmonica. The moment was captured several years ago at a concert when Carter came up from the audience to join the two onstage. The photograph has been signed by President Carter.

Donor(s): Mr. Mickey Raphael
Value: $1,500.00

Winning bid: $20,000.00

45. CHRIS DIDOMIZIO SKETCHES

Chris diDomizio is a national-award-winning artist with over 25 years of teaching experience. Offered here are two images he created of President Carter at church. Both perspectives show Carter with his head bowed and eyes closed, illuminated by soft light from a nearby window. The more distant view also shows the Bible on his lap. The images were created using charcoal and chalk and are float mounted behind conservation clear UV-protected glass. Each measures 20 inches by 27 inches. Since they are float mounted, it is strongly recommended that they never lie face down. The highest bidder will have the option to purchase one image or both for twice the winning bid amount.

Donor(s): Mr. Chris diDomizio

Value: $2,500.00      Winning bid: $11,000.00

46. MIDDLE EASTERN-STYLE MOSAIC COLLECTION

A handcrafted rotary telephone is decorated in the style of Middle Eastern mosaics with wood, bone, and nacre inlay. A rectangular plate below the dial pad on the front reads "President Jimmy Carter." A similar plate on the back bears the words "B. Challah, President Union Syrian Chambers of Commerce." With the phone are a mosaic portrait, a letter, and a sketch of President Carter done by Rafik Shallah, who worked at the Syrian Agricultural Research & Consulting Center. Mosaics like these require a steady hand and creative imagination, and here we see both on display.

Donor(s): The Carter Center

Value: $1,500.00      Winning bid: $1,500.00

47. JIMMY CARTER INTERNATIONAL STAMP COLLECTION

The image from a $100 Liberian stamp recognizing the 39th president of the United States is printed multiple times to serve as the background for this unique collage. The display includes stamps from the "100 Years of U.S. Presidents" and "The Presidents of the United States of America" postage series from Liberia, "The Year of the Elder Person" collection from Guyana, a set of three Guinea worm stamps from Sudan, and a pane of postage from Russia that has depictions of several U.S. presidents. There are also two postal covers that commemorate the visit of President Carter to the family home of George Washington during the European Summit of 1977 and of Pope John Paul II to the White House in October 1979. The collage is presented in a 23-inch by 27-inch wood frame with gold-colored accents. President Carter has signed the collage near the bottom right corner.

Donor(s): Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hall

Value: $750.00      Winning bid: $2,200.00

48. JEROME LAWRENCE ORIGINAL PAINTING

Auction favorite Jerome Lawrence presents two vibrant original acrylic paintings. Both are untitled. The first painting measures 5 feet by 4 feet and shows flowers in shades of red, blue, white, and purple in a short vase. The second is 4 feet by 6 feet and depicts a tree line with white tree trunks and yellow foliage. The highest bidder can choose to purchase one of the two offerings or both for twice the amount. Included with each is a short creative writing piece. They are shown below.

Creative writing for piece 1 (red, white, and blue painting):

God and country
From shore to shore
With love for you
Forevermore.

Creative writing for piece 2 (white and yellow trees):

All roads converge on a yellow wood
And I took the one you traveled by
And love has made all the difference.

50. FISHING TRIP WITH THE PROS

Three unforgettable days, two legendary anglers, one amazing experience. Johnny Morris and Bill Dance will serve as guides and host you and up to three friends for three days of fishing at one of their favorite spots. On the first day you will travel to “The Pits,” the Morris family farm in Calhoun, Missouri, and settle in at the Black Oak Lodge before enjoying dinner with Johnny and Bill. After breakfast the next day you will spend the morning fishing for monster bass in the private waters of The Pits at Calhoun. An afternoon of fishing follows lunch in the field. End the day with dinner and storytelling. Start your third day with a hearty breakfast before heading to the airport for your return flight. Your lodging, meals, guides, and a keepsake fishing package that features a Johnny Morris Signature Series Rod & Reel and a fully stocked tackle box for each angler are included. You’ll also receive a Delta gift card valued at $1,000 to be used toward airfare purchased either at delta.com, at the airport, via telephone through reservations, or with Delta Vacations.

Ground transportation from Clinton Memorial, Sedalia Regional, Springfield-Branson National or Kansas City International airport is included. Availability subject to coordination of schedules; trip must be taken before the summer of 2020.

53. PORCELAIN CHINESE STATUE

This statue shows the white face and head of a woman atop a light green stylized wave that also reaches up to provide a backdrop for her head. Resembling depictions of GuanYin, goddess of mercy and kindness and the mother-goddess of seamen, the porcelain figurine is 14 inches tall and stands on a wooden base shaped to resemble ocean waves. It comes in a red wood box that has the phrase "Immaterial World Cultural Heritage" stamped on the top of it and is designed to safely cradle and protect the statue.

Donor(s): Mr. Li Xiaohua

Value: $1,800.00 Winning bid: $4,000.00

55. WHITE HOUSE HOLIDAY COLLECTION

Celebrating the holidays at the White House is the theme of this memorabilia collection. The hard-cover book "Season's Greetings from the White House" by Mary Evans Seeley is signed by the Carters and shares stories of the Christmas celebrations of many presidents. The winning bidder will also receive a Christmas ornament from the White House Historical Association that is decorated with a replica of the official seal of the president and was designed to celebrate 200 years of the presidency. Also included is a 24-inch by 29-inch print showing a snow scene of the White House. In 1980 President and Mrs. Carter gave these as Christmas gifts to staff and supporters. Their signatures are printed on the bottom along with an inscription that reads "Thank you for your friendship and support! With our best wishes." Original signatures from both appear below the printed ones.

Donor(s): Ms. Ann Johnson, Ms. Betty Rainwater, Ms. Peggy Rainwater, and a Friend of The Carter Center

Value: $500.00 Winning bid: $5,500.00

56. ABRAHAM LINCOLN LITHOGRAPH AND SIGNATURE

This piece was rescued from the donor's home in Chico, California, during the tragic Camp Fire last year that razed the town of Paradise. With a slight hint of smoke still lingering and several burn marks visible on the back, this rare color lithograph shows the 16th president of the United States and his family. The Lincolns are seen in front of a window with a view of the Capitol building in the background. Centered below the lithograph is an original signature of Abraham Lincoln.

Donor(s): Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ostrander

Value: $4,950.00    Winning bid: $100,000.00

57. CARTER FAMILY BOOKS

The books offered here demonstrate that there are many talented writers in the Carter family. The collection includes "Billy" by Sybil Carter, "Cousin Beedie and Cousin Hot: My Life With the Carter Family of Plains, Georgia" by Hugh Carter, "The Gift of Inner Healing" by Ruth Carter Stapleton, "Power Lines" by Jason Carter, and "Away From Home: Letters to My Family" by Lillian Carter and Gloria Carter Spann. All books are signed by the authors.

61. FLY FISHING MEMORABILIA

A grouping that includes several items for any fly fishing enthusiast, this collection begins with a copy of John Bryan's book "Take Me Fishing." The limited-edition grand presentation copy is housed in a handmade wooden box that features a limited-edition James Prosek print in the lid. Affixed to the acid-free frontispiece of the book are small pieces of fishing line used by 40 of the book's authors, including fly line that President Jimmy Carter used at Spruce Creek. Along with the book, you will receive a signed excerpt from the foreword President Carter wrote for it, printed on his personal stationery and framed.

Donor(s): The Carter Center

Value: $1,500.00    Winning bid: $3,500.00

62. TESSELLATION PHOTOGRAPH

Traveling for a year taking pictures became Montine Blank's living expression of gratitude for our planet and its trees and gave rise to her body of work titled REALM, which includes the image offered here. The photograph was taken at dusk on the grounds of The Carter Center. To create it, Blank and an assistant set up lights under the tree so that it was illuminated entirely from below. The resulting tessellation (a regular pattern made up of flat shapes repeated and joined together without any gaps or overlaps) was mounted and printed with archival inks on Hahnemuhle 100% cotton Photo Rag paper. It is displayed behind museum glass in a 42-inch by 44-inch satin black frame.

Donor(s): Ms. Montine Blank

Value: $2,800.00    Winning bid: $2,500.00

63. BILL CLINTON INAUGURATION MEMORABILIA

Another piece that was rescued from the donor's home during the Camp Fire in California, this frame contains an authentic invitation to Bill Clinton's inauguration. It is accompanied by a photograph showing President Clinton being sworn in on the steps of the Capitol. His wife holds the Bible, and Chelsea Clinton, Al Gore, and other dignitaries are seen in the crowd. The invitation is from the Presidential Inaugural Committee and is autographed by Bill Clinton and Hillary Rodham Clinton.

Donor(s): Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ostrander

Value: $4,900.00    Winning bid: $3,000.00

64. CARTER PORTRAIT PAINTING

This large portrait of President Carter was created by prominent American impressionist painter James Richards, who lives in Athens, Georgia. For the image, Richards uses green, brown, white, black, and red to capture President Carter's warm expression. The canvas is mounted in a rustic 38-inch square frame and is signed by the artist in the bottom right corner.

$8,000.00
Winning bid:
$9,000.00

65. BORDERLINE FREEDOM SILKSCREEN

James Rosenquist applied his experience as a billboard painter to develop techniques for large canvases, which brought him international acclaim. Blending advertising and pop culture, often in outrageous ways, he juxtaposed fragmented but familiar images to deliver serious visual messages. This work, which he created for the Carter Center's "Views of Human Rights" portfolio shows Rosenquist's own footprints in red, black, and blue, against a bright white 14-inch by 20-inch background decorated with segments of barbed wire and splashes of color. The artist has written "Borderline Freedom James Rosenquist 2001 / 8/10 AP for Hamilton Jordan" along the bottom of the image.

Donor(s): The Carter Center
Value: $2,500.00    Winning bid: $8,000.00

70. SUZHOU DOUBLE-SIDED SILK EMBROIDERY

Some of the finest silk embroidery creations in the world come from the longstanding tradition that is Suzhou. Perhaps the most famous of all is the double-sided variety, where an image can be viewed from either side, as is the case with this piece. The rich colors of the flowers, leaves, and stems are visible from both sides of the dark wood frame, which is a work of art itself. The top portion rotates allowing you to experience the wonder of both sides of the piece without moving. The embroidery with its stand is 26 inches wide and 21 inches tall.

Donor(s): Mr. Li Xiaohua

Value: $1,000.00    Winning bid: $4,500.00

71. HANDCRAFTED WOODEN VESSEL

Craftsman Mike Snegg has remarked that “Making bowls from trees is the discovery of an internal shape, which has grown for years waiting to see the light.” It is evident that he understands the magnificent beauty of nature and strives to help others view it more clearly. These creations from Mr. Snegg reflect his talent and passion for woodworking. The bowls are carved from the trunk of a Norfolk Island pine tree from Kauai, Hawaii. The first measures 17 inches across and 13 inches deep, while the second is 16 inches across and 10 inches deep. Both pieces have a smooth-as-glass finish and come with a custom light to illuminate the translucent beauty of the wood. The winning bidder can choose to purchase one at the winning price or two for double the bid. To see more of Mike Snegg’s artistry, visit www.mikesneggbowls.com.

74. THE DREAM FULFILLED MEMORABILIA

Two historic figures in American history are remembered together. A 32-inch by 25-inch frame holds a photograph of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. on the day of his “I Have a Dream” speech and a copy of a historical retrospective magazine titled “Obama: The Dream Fulfilled.” Dr. King’s signature appears below the photograph, and President Obama’s is beneath the magazine. Recognizing one of the most famous speeches ever delivered and perhaps the most famous presidential election in American history, this is another treasure saved from the Camp Fire disaster of 2018.

Donor(s): Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ostrander

Value: $4,950.00      Winning bid: $130,000.00

75. HANDMADE GIRLS' DRESS AND DOLL

Created to honor Connie Palmer's friendship with Carol Filbeck and Mrs. Filbeck's friendship with Mrs. Carter and The Carter Center, this classic yoke dress and the slip underneath are made with three yards of soft blue 100% Swiss batiste fabric and 30 yards of beautiful French lace. A girls' size 6, it is ankle length and perfect for holiday events or for the flower girl at a wedding. Rows of pintucks alternate with lace bands on the sleeves, yoke, and hem of the garment. Small machine-embroidered flowers appear on the yoke and hem. A fancy lace band adorns the bottom of the dress, which comes with an 18-inch-tall doll wearing a matching outfit.

Donor(s): Ms. Connie Palmer and Ms. Carol Filbeck

77. "SOMETIMES I WISH WE WERE AN EAGLE" SCULPTURE

Depicting a mighty eagle with a fish in its talons, this sculpture was created to celebrate President and Mrs. Carter's love for fishing and the outdoors. The display table and sculpture were designed and fabricated of reclaimed maple, oak, and walnut by 26-year-old Kyle Cottier, a multimedia artist born in Louisville, Kentucky. Cottier graduated from the Art Academy of Cincinnati and works in New York in the studio of Doug and Mike Starn. The title for this piece comes from a Bill Callahan country album released in 2009. Cottier states, "The music speaks to the goal that we all come together as one free and equally powerful and beautiful creature." His next solo show is in Gatlinburg, Tennessee, in October 2019.

Donor(s): Dr. Stephen Wheeler and Dr. Patricia Wheeler
Value: $2,000.00 Winning bid: $17,500.00

78. HANDCRAFTED UKULELE

This handcrafted tenor ukulele has a unique design that allows the soundhole cutouts, which are shaped like the Hawaiian Islands chain, to resonate at a higher level. The sides, neck, and body are made of acacia wood, which is highly sought after for its durability and beauty. The face of the instrument is made with American spruce, and the fingerboard is made of Mexican cocobolo with a zebra wood inlay. The instrument was handcrafted by Bud Tovar. In a 2012 interview with the late Gilbert Kaplan, host of the radio program “Mad About Music,” President Carter said that the ukulele is the only instrument he ever learned to play.

Donor(s): Mr. Bud Tovar

Value: $2,000.00      Winning bid: $9,000.00
